

DUCKSRISE

Walking Tour: Indigenous UO

Start at Indigenous, Race, Ethnic Studies: Alder Street BLDG -818 E15th

End at Northwest Indian Language Institute (NILI) – 17th and Moss

Our route:

Indigenous, Race, and Ethnic Studies (IRES) at the Alder Building, 818 E 15th

Sapsik'wala Teacher Education Program in Lokey

Indigenous Traditional Ecological Knowledge Initiative in Lokey

The Southwest Oregon Research Project Collection (SWORP) in Library

Native Community Theatre Project in Villard

Office of the Vice President on Sovereignty and Government-to-Government Relations -
Johnson Hall

Flags at EMU amphitheater

1% for Art EMU Stone Sculpture Project, EMU

Native American Student Union – EMU, MCC

Native American Law Student Association (NALSA) - Knight Law School

Museum of Natural and Cultural History (MNCH)

Native Quad

Many Nations Longhouse

Site of the first UO Longhouse

The Responsibility of Raising a Child - Bronze casting of a sculpture by the late Rick Bartow, outside Kalapuya

Marie Watt art in entryway – Kalapuya

James Lavadour Triptic: Untitled – Kalapuya

Kalapuya Ilihi Hall

Native American and Indigenous Studies Academic Residential Community (NAIS ARC) - Kalpuya

Northwest Indian Language Institute (NILI) – behind Moss children center, 17th & Moss